World Mission Month

October is World Mission Month, culminating in World Mission Day on Sunday 21 October 2007.

The theme for World Mission Day this year is "Youth in Mission : Care for Creation, Care for Neighbour", highlighting the fantastic mission work undertaken by young people around the world. Often, in remote communities Catholic Mission is asked to fund projects like rebuilding churches. In many areas these types of works serve many purposes - a church for the formation of the people, a community hall for gatherings and a tank for fresh drinking water.

YOUTH GROUP will meet at the 6pm Mass at St Patrick's Church TODAY, Sunday 14th October and afterwards in the Parish Hall. Why not invite a friend? There are exciting times ahead, leading up to World Youth Day 2008.

SOCIAL JUSTICE COMMENT Advance Note: The date for our pre-loved children's book collection (especially for 0-8 year olds) mentioned in last week's bulletin will be the weekend of 17/18 November. As a parish, are we able to give the young children in the Redfern/Waterloo area a chance to develop their early literacy skills and a lifelong enjoyment of books? We hope so. Perhaps over the next few weeks you could sort out books at your place and be ready to bring them along that weekend. There will be collection points at both churches and the Brooklyn Chapel. We'll keep reminding you.

This fortnight's theme of OzSpirit is Anti-Poverty Week. 'Like slavery and apartheid, poverty is not natural. It is man-made and it can be overcome and eradicated by the actions of human beings.' (Nelson Mandela) Our television screens beam images from around the globe directly into our homes every day. Scenes of hunger, conflict and suffering have highlighted the reality of poverty and existence in many countries of the world. To be free from poverty is not a condition that should be earned; it is the right of every individual on the planet. For suggestions on what you can do, visit www.caritas.org.au

Balancing work, life, faith & family. Daily life is very busy with competing priorities; it feels as though there is never enough time to do everything. A forum on Sunday 21 October, which is an initiative of the Women's Commission, aims to assist individuals to re-establish balance in their lives. Sandie Cornish and Dr Roberts Leary GP will give brief presentations. Details: St Patrick's Cathedral Hall, Marist Place, Parramatta from 2-4 pm. Ring Loretta on 9683 6277 for further information.

Federal Election. Catholic views on matters of bioethics, abortion, and euthanasia – all based on the principle of the dignity of the human person – are very well known to politicians, and to the general public. The other three key principles of Catholic Social Teaching – the common good, solidarity and subsidiarity – also provide guidance to Catholics as we assess alternative policy proposals and prepare to vote in a Federal Election. More info on www.acbc.catholic.org.au.
