RCIA: Big topic this week. "Morals". This has many facets and lends itself to deep thinking and lively discussion. 8pm Thursday at 40 Royston Parade Asquith.

THEATRE PARTY: The Ball Family Group are taking a theatre party to see the Pymble Players Production of David Williamson's play "Face to Face" at 4pm on Saturday 21 February. Sounds interesting as Glen deals with the repercussions of ramming his car into the back of his boss's Mercedes. Cost $20. Concession $15.

Do you see the Catholic Church as no longer relevant in your life? Have you been just too busy to fit the practice of the faith into your life? Have you been hurt or alienated by members of the Church? Or do you just want to find meaning in your life, forgive someone, be healed or be part of a faith community? Then the "Reconnect Program" could be for you. Reconnect is a program of welcome for inactive Catholics and who are considering having another look at us, the Church. The program provides the opportunity to be heard, to tell your story and perhaps have some of your misconceptions of the faith cleared up, all in a supportive and welcoming environment.
