STEWARDSHIP REFLECTION

"for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted." - Luke 18:14

Do we exalt ourselves? We do if we think that we get credit for any of the good things in our lives. As stewards it is important that we remember that every good thing on this earth is a gift from God. We should be humbled by God's abundant generosity. Our hearts should be filled with gratitude. Stewardship and Development, Archdiocese of St Louis

SOCIAL JUSTICE COMMENT

Tuesday, 26 October is the next meeting of your Social Justice Group. Please give the Pastoral Office a ring for meeting details if you would like to join us – we love to see you!

We celebrated World Food Day during the week emphasising the struggle to overcome global hunger. This year's theme is: "United against hunger" chosen to recognize the efforts made in the fight against world hunger at national, regional and international levels. Uniting against hunger becomes real when state and civil society organizations and the private sector work in partnership at all levels to defeat hunger, extreme poverty and malnutrition.

Act for Peace: Disarmament Week will be celebrated this week. All humanity is threatened by the proliferation of nuclear weapons. We outlined this problem in last week's column and during this coming week Act for Peace is calling on Australians to speed up disarmament for a safer world. Send a message to the Federal Government, your local MP or contact Act for Peace on 1800 025 101 for more information.

IT'S IN THE BIBLE!! A man and his wife were having an argument about who Should brew the coffee each morning. The wife said, 'You should do it, because you get up first, And then we don't have to wait as long to get our coffee.' The husband said, ' You are in charge of cooking around here and you should do it, because that is your job, and I can just wait for my coffee.' Wife replies, 'No, you should do it, and besides, it is in the Bible that the man should do the coffee.' Husband replies, 'I can't believe that, show me.' So she fetched the Bible, and opened the New Testament and showed him at the top of several pages, that it indeed says.....'HEBREWS'
