R.C.I.C. Rite of Christian Initiation of Children The children have met a couple of times and learned about Baptism and the real story of Christmas. They are taking a break over the holidays and will meet again on Sunday 31 January at 8.a.m. Mass. Enquiries to Angela Smith 9476 5747.

R.C.I.A. Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults Our Catechumens are preparing to meet again on Thursday 7 January when the subject is "Being Called". This has many aspects to think about. Our 'being called' as Christians to follow the teachings of Jesus Christ, Vocation, whether religious or secular, Ministry in the Parish and helping our fellow Christians, the face we present to the general community as Catholics. If you would like to contemplate this subject in more depth, join us at 40 Royston Parade, Asquith at 8 p.m.

SACRAMENTAL PROGRAM ENROLMENT FORMS FOR THE SACRAMENT OF PENANCE 2010

are available at the back of the churches.
Enrolments will take place after weekend
Masses on 30/31 January 2010 at St Bernard's Berowra Heights in the Father Denis Callahan
Hall and after the 8am and 10am Masses at St Patrick's on 31
January in the Father Patrick McMaugh Hall.

ACCESS TO ST PATRICK'S SCHOOL DURING BUILDING

* There will be no weekday access from Royston Parade to the school via the top gate nearest to the office. All are asked to utilise the bottom gate when coming on site.

* The bus zone and kiss and drop zone may change to make things safer and easier at peak times. Please watch for notice of this in the new year.

* There will be further strains on parking once work commences with up to twenty construction workers a day needing to utilise parking facilities. Please be mindful of this and a little patient when needed.

· To save space that would normally be allocated for worksite toilets, lunchroom and office, our hall toilets will be exclusively for workers, along with the interview room and co-ordinator office.

· Weekend access will remain for Masses with a second gate to be available and opened for normal parking procedures.

250 CLUB MEMBERS PLEASE NOTE

Results for Monday 28
December and Monday 4 January will be published in the Bulletin on 10 January.
